

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ARACELY OREGON,

Plaintiff,

v.

BOSTON SCIENTIFIC CORPORATION,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:21-cv-01092-ADA-CDB

ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE
APPLICATION OF RACHEL L. WRIGHT
TO PRACTICE PRO HAC VICE

(Doc. 37)

Pending before the Court is the application of Rachel L. Wright, attorney for Plaintiff Aracely Oregon, for admission to practice pro hac vice. (Doc. 37). Admission to appear pro hac vice in an action pending in the Eastern District of California is governed by the Local Rule 180. Pursuant to Local Rule 180, an attorney who is a member in good standing and eligible to practice before the Bar of any of the United States Court or of the highest Court of any State may be permitted to practice in a case within this judicial district on a pro hac vice basis upon application and discretion of this Court.

1 An attorney who seeks pro hac vice status shall present to the Clerk an application with the
2 following:

3 (i) the attorney's residence and office addresses, (ii) by what courts the attorney has
4 been admitted to practice and the dates of admissions, (iii) a certificate of good
5 standing from the court in the attorney's state of primary practice, (iv) that the 6 attorney is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court, and (v) if the 7 attorney has concurrently or within the year precedomg the current
8 application made any other pro hac vice applications to this Court, the title
9 and number of each action in which such application was made, the date of each
10 application, and whether each application was granted.

11 Local Rule 180(b)(2)(i). Here, despite Attorney Wright's assertion in the application that she was 12 submitting a certificate of good standing in conjunction with the application, no such certificate
13 from the court in the attorney's state of primary practice was filed. See (Doc. 37). Thus, the 14 application does not comport with Local Rule 180.

15 Accordingly, it is HEREBY ORDERED, attorney Rachel L. Wright's application for pro
16 hac vice (Doc. 37) is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.
